Second Annual Trophy Night

Over forty members of the Coleman Fish & Game Association attended the club's second annual trophy night in the Legion building on March 6th, and elected Dante Filafilo as president and Lorne Ferschweiler as secretary.

The two new officers replace Orazio Celli and Al Krywolt, who have served the sportsman club for five consecutive years as president and secretary respectively.

A number of other committees were elected and comprised:

Fish committee, Carl Sapeta, chairman; Paul Filawich and Joe Petusk.

Big Game, Jim Kerr, chairman; Lorne Plante and Fiore Berlin.

Predator committee, Ted Michalsky, chairman; Jack Kerr and Jerry Fisher.

Project, Al Krywolt and Nick Cytko.

Membership committee, Harry Scaba, chairman; Rudy Yeliga, Bill Filawich, John Sansahyn, Mike Kubica and Henry Thibierge.

Immediate past president, O. Celli expressed his thanks to the officers of the past years who had served the club and strongly emphasized the importance of having a large active club if any projects are to be achieved. He extended an invitation to women interested in fishing and hunting, to join the club.

The nominating committee that presented the slate of officers for the club's approval, were Paul Filawich and Lorne Plante.

After naming the slate Mr. Plante verbally thanked some of the members for just being members and not wanting to take office or work on the club's committees.

During the short business meeting that was held it was reported that it appeared there was a considerable increase in the coyote population in the area. It was felt that the increase in price of coyote pelts that was effected recently would tend to cut down the coyote population as more trappers and hunters would be going after the animals. The matter was referred to the Predator committee for investigation.

A number of club members will visit the Hillcrest Fish and Game Club at its next meeting to enlist the support of the neighboring club in getting more fish stocked in this area.

As soon as weather breaks the Coleman club will proceed to an area south of York Creek to look over the area as a possible site for a project similar to the Allison Creek dam project undertaken by the Coleman group a number of years ago.

John W. Dean, supervisor of the Coleman Junior Forest Wardens' group, addressed the meeting and gave a resume of what the young lads had done during the past year. The Junior Wardens enjoyed camping trips to Castle River, hikes in the Beaver Mines district, Cedar gathering trips to Fernie, and an ice fishing trip to Beauvill Lake.

Four of the Wardens attended summer camp at Hinton.

The Wardens meet each Tuesday night and besides interesting studies in various phases of Forestry, lectures were given by Ranger R. Gardiner on tree identification, by Dr. Andrew Krebs of Blairmore on first aid. There are presently 30 boys in the group and plans for an active season are already underway.

Past president Orazio Celli, assisted by Trophy committee chairman Jim Kerr, then presented the awards to the winning members.

Receiving awards were:

White tail deer, Joe Zur; Rocky mountain sheep, Ted Michalsky; Moose, Donald Jones and second in Moose, Henry Thibierge; Male deer, Jim Kerr and Elk, Lorne Plante.

The award for the biggest fish was taken by Paul Filawich.

On display at the awards night was an old sheep head killed by Jim Yates of Coleman.

The excellent specimen was shot in the Casterack Creek area north of Coleman in 1934, and scoring 183½, the excellent specimen is eligible for entry in the world's record book of Boone and Crockett of New York. The moose horns entered by Donald Jones scoring 187½ are also eligible for entry in Boone and Crockett.

After the presentation of awards a buffet lunch was served and a program of entertainment was well received.

High School Concert Successful

The Coleman Junior High School concert presented in the Horace Allen School auditorium last week-end and attended by over 250 persons, was very successful.

The concert featured a one-act play "Herodias' Night Out", and another "The Waverton Mountain Hillbilly Band".

A number of musical and vocal numbers as well as skits and other short features were well presented by the students who were under the direction of the Junior High School staff.

Timothy Span Still Missing

Coleman Collieries has now resumed mining operations and rescue team are still clearing out the entry where it is believed that missing mine worker Timothy Span is buried under the muck and rubble.

Mr. Span was lost on February 17th via a flood of water from an underground lake carried down tremendous amounts of muck, rubble and rock and plugged the mine entry to a great distance.

Mr. Span, 28, has a wife Glenda, two sons and a baby daughter in Coleman.

Town Council Regular Meeting

The council meeting of February 23rd was held with a relatively small agenda. Present, at the request of the council, was Mr. Reynolds, representing Burroughs Business Machines.

Mr. Reynolds presented council with information and prices on the new accounting machines available and pointed out the various jobs which could be performed by it. This information would be turned over to the Finance committee for further investigation.

Discussions arose over the business licensing of local and outside dealerships. Councilman Owen expressed views as to why local business people should pay licence fees while the outside dealers could come into town for nothing.

It was decided to enforce the existing by-law with the police chief collecting the licence fees. The question then arose of restricting trade, after some discussion it was the feeling that the case was not of restricting trade, but of protecting local merchants.

Council set forth a fee of $2.00 for the licensing of all dogs in town, with the police chief collecting. A dog catcher has been advertised for and will be acquired.

Industrial Development Board was brought up with the decision to advance $100 now, and pending the per capita share by the government, match the sum up to a maximum of 25c per capita.

The budget will be presented to council at the next regular meeting.

Councillor Hanrahan produced information and figures on a new tractor with back hoe attachment. After some discussion, and the realization that 1965 was going to be a very expensive year, council decided to drop the idea for this year. It was then decided to collect all information for the year on similar machinery and discuss the investment at a later date.

A letter from Mar-Jac Paving Ltd. of Lethbridge, advised council that they were liquidating.

This brought some discussion as Mar-Jac owns the town of Coleman approximately $1,000. It was decided a letter would be sent to the handling attorneys.

Mr. Albert Sapeta of Albert's

Bowling requested by letter that he be granted permission to operate on Sundays. Enclosed in the letter was a letter of instruction and regulations from Edmonton, pending approval of the town council, provincial regulations and the Lord's Day Act as well as local RCMP's.

Permission was granted by council with the stipulation that he abide with provincial regulations and the RCMP's.

By-law 341 was presented to the members. This being the speed limit on Highway No. 3 also known as 4th Street through the town of Coleman. The speed being 35 mph. First and second readings were given this by-law with four members for and two against in each reading.

A very heated discussion took place over the by-law, with Mr. Filawich and Mr. Kryczka set firmly against the changing of the limit.

Councillors Szymanek and Hanrahan were granted permission to exchange chairs on committees.

Councillor Szymanek will now be chairman of the Works and Property Department while Mr. Hanrahan will chair the Parks, Cemetery and Rink department. The reason for the change being that Councillor Hanrahan is now out of town most of the week, so he does not have the opportunity to hear the people.

Discussion arose regarding the rented truck. It was decided to obtain a contract for same.

Decided crushed gravel bids should be put out immediately so as to be able to have this job done under the winter works program.

Council agreed the bridge between 3rd and 4th Streets should also be repaired the winter works program.

Financial statements of Pincher Creek Town Council presented by Councillor and Member Hanrahan. The Lodge showed a net profit of $395.30 and with a balance forward from 1963 of $2816.28, giving a total of $6,024.58.

The last item on the agenda was the purchase of a new Canadian Flag, which brought approval.

Govt. To Prepare Survey On Metro Govt.

William Kovach, M.L.A. of Hillcrest, presently attending a parliamentary session in Edmonton, advised Tuesday, March 2 that he had received correspondence from Harry Strom, Minister of Agriculture, advising that the Cabinet had favorably considered a resolution sent to the Government by Crowns Nest Pass towns regarding a Metro Government for the Pass.

The resolution was drawn up at a recent meeting held in Bellevue and suggested that the government conduct a survey and study of the Pass area and attempt to come up with a feasible Metro Government for the area.

Mr. Strom was chairman at a meeting of Cabinet Ministers and Crowns Nest Pass town council, held in Fort Macleod last fall.

It was pointed out at this meeting that the purpose of such a Metro Government system would be to link the Pass together and avoid duplication of such services as sewerage systems and other community services.

OF MANY THINGS (By Ambrose Hills)

Jails Full Of Farmers?

Manitoba's compulsory potato marketing commission was only a couple of weeks old when it started talking tough to the farmers. Its chairman was quoted in the press as saying that if some farmers remain stubborn, and insist on packaging and selling their own potatoes, "the jails will be filled".

He went on to extol the purpose of the commission, which, he claims, is aiming only at "stabilizing" the price of potatoes. Whom does he think he's kidding? The aim of the commission is to increase the price of potatoes. And at that it certainly is succeeding!

On January 16, at a supermarket close to us I priced potatoes. For 10 pounds of Manitoba potatoes they asked $1.19; while at the same time, 10 pounds of excellent P.E.I. potatoes, packed by H. B. Willis, could be had for 69c. You can guess which potatoes the customers were buying. And will continue to buy, unless the government later on gives the commission power to put consumers in jail.

Farmers threatened with jail, of course, are the ones who went out and bought packaging equipment. These are farmers proud of the potatoes they grow and willing to put a trade name on them so the consumer, liking them, will ask for them by name. They don't want to let this expensive equipment rust unused, but unless they smuggle their packaged potatoes successfully, they can look forward to being jailed for dissenting.

On the way to my country cottage there is a farmer who grows potatoes which I think are about the best in the world. I like to buy from him. I suppose that this summer, if he sells me any he will be bootlegging. I suspect he will give them to me -- if the commission will let him -- rather than disappoint an old customer. Or, because he is a very independent man, I wouldn't be surprised if he went on selling his own spuds packed in his own bags and let them put him in jail.

I suspect that with 25 or 30 of our best Manitoba farmers sitting in jail cells our Conservative government, which likes to talk about freedom, would feel pretty silly.

Report From Parliament Hill

(Lawrence E. Kindt, M.P.)

After a two-month recess Parliament is now engaged in attempting to finish this, the longest parliamentary session in history.

Apart from a number of minor pieces of legislation (all of which were passed in about two hours last week) Parliament was faced with three very important pieces of legislation.

- (1) The Federal Labor Code.
- (2) The Canada Pension Plan.
- (3) Constitutional Changes, which, among other things permit provinces to "opt out" of any joint Federal-Provincial Plan, e.g., the Canada Pension Plan.

THE FEDERAL LABOR CODE--

The new Federal Labor Code was placed before Parliament last week end, and, in general terms, it provided that all employees under the jurisdiction of the Federal Government would have a minimum wage of $1.25 per hour, with a 40-hour week. Certain other benefits, such as two weeks' vacation with pay, and eight statutory holidays were also included.

Everyone agreed with the principle of this legislation, but there were a number of details that caused a great deal of debate and, in all fairness, the Government accepted a number of the suggestions made by the Opposition in the form of amendments.

In its final form the new Labor Code is quite satisfactory, although there are still a number of very complicated matters which will undoubtedly cause much difficulty in its administration. Two of the main problems concern the trucking industry and small privately-owned feed mills in eastern Canada.

In brief, the main problem affecting the trucking industry is that trucking firms operating away from their home provinces are NOT subject to the wage and hour restrictions, whereas trucking companies that operate between provinces, must abide by the new wage and hour regulations. This, of course, places those companies doing inter-provincial business at a considerable disadvantage. In addition many truck runs take longer than eight hours in a day.

Some of these difficulties have been overcome in the legislation by permitting the "averaging out" of hours of work and by permitting the Minister of Labor to suspend the operation of the Act for almost an indefinite time where certain industries are seriously injured or placed in an unfair competitive position as a result of the legislation.

Another big problem concerns employees of grain elevators. It is quite clear that employees of grain elevators in western Canada, because of their particular nature, should come under the jurisdiction of the new Labor Code.

This, however, should not be the case in the small, privately-owned feed mills in eastern Canada.

While amendments to the legislation may well give some relief to the problems faced by the operators of eastern feed mills, it is the writer's view that the existing legislation in this particular regard is a serious infringement of provincial rights and may well be illegal.

The "Canada Pension Plan" and Constitutional Changes and "Opting Out" will be discussed in subsequent articles.

Vocational Plans For Grade 11, 12 Students

A study of the vocational plans of Alberta Grade XI and XII students is being undertaken by the Department of Education in co-operation with the schools, the Alberta Teachers' Association and the Alberta School Trustees' Association.

The study is concerned not only with the nature of training programs and vocations students are planning to enter after high school but also with the reasons why students make the choices they do. The degree to which students are aware of educational and vocational opportunities beyond high school will also be assessed.

The information will be obtained by means of a questionnaire to be administered in all high schools in February. Close to 40,000 students are now enrolled in Grades

XI and XII throughout the province. In addition to providing useful information on anticipated enrolments and the need for expanded facilities at various training institutions such as the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology, the data should be of considerable value to the schools in assessing the plans of their students and in making comparisons across the province. It is anticipated that the study may be repeated at intervals in order to provide information on trends in the plans of students.

The director of the study is Dr. Donald Fair, on leave from the University of Alberta in Edmonton.

An advisory committee has been appointed consisting of representatives from the Department of Education and interested outside groups. Preliminary information from the study should be available in about three months; more detailed analysis of the data and the final report will probably require a year or more.

VIEWING HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE COMING WEEK

MARCH 13th - 19th

First, a reminder of those World Hockey telecasts. On the full CBC network, Saturday, March 18th at 2 p.m., it's Canada versus Czechoslovakia, and March 18th at 11:30 p.m., many individual stations on the prairies will be carrying the all-important Canada versus Russia match.

On Sunday, March 14th at 3:00 p.m., Heritage will present a program described by producer Rena Elmer as a warm and sympathetic introduction to classical Judaism, as reflected in the day-to-day home life of a Jewish family in Canada. A CBC film unit spent four days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hattori Manner of Toronto, and one day in the Clinton Park Synagogue, capturing in pictorial poetry the mood of the classical Jewish faith, its sacred writings and centuries-old tradition.

Monday evening, television offers a fictional drama and a real life documentary with similar themes. On Show of the Week, "The Outpost" is the story of a remote army outpost bordering on the territory of a potential enemy. All day, every day, five men scan the endless horizon for signs of manoeuvres which could herald an impending attack. Lee Patterson, Max Hempmann, Leo Cicci, Ed McNamara and Bernard Behrens star in "The Outpost" at 8 p.m.

Then at 9 p.m. on the documentary "Korea", the site of much of the film is the actual borderland between North and South Korea. The history of the Korean War is re-told from the invasion of South Korea in June, 1950, until the uneasy truce which established the boundaries along the 38th parallel in 1953.

A subtle, impressionistic love story by Katherine Anne Porter, adapted by Fletcher Markle, which won extraordinarily high praise from the critics and viewers when it was first produced on CBC-TV in October, 1963, will be presented again on Festival, Wednesday night at 9:30. It stars two outstanding young American performers, Joan Hackett and Keri Dulka, and centres around their sensitive love story set in Denver, Colorado, during the flu epidemic of 1918.

Ask a hundred hockey fans what the name Foster Hewitt means to them and you'll probably get a hundred replies beginning with "I remember on Saturday nights we used to crowd around the radio in the living room (or the corner store, the town post office, the church basement, or even the local pool room) and listen to Foster call the game." The location may have varied—never the voice.

Hewitt was the first man ever to broadcast a hockey game. Actually, he was still a teen-ager when his boss at The Toronto Star ordered him to Mutual Star arena to broadcast the game between Toronto Parkdale and Kitchener Seniors. That was on March 22, 1923, and in the intervening years Foster has covered hockey games for radio and television continuously—never missing a broadcast because of illness.

CBC-TV's Telescope pays tribute to Foster Hewitt on Friday, March 19 at 9:30 p.m. with a profile program entitled "The World of Mr. Hockey". Host is Fletcher Markle.

HOCKEY NEWS

Legionaires in Playoffs

The Coleman Legionaires are in the Intermediate C class semi-playoffs.

The games are a two-game total-point series. That is the total goals of two games is the winning score. They forced the Strathmore Royals out by winning both games.

On Wednesday, March 3rd they edged the game with the score of 5-4. Saturday, March 6th showed different picture when they bombarded the Royals 10-3. This game Coleman is goals and Strathmore 7. The star on Saturday for Coleman was Fred Churla who got 5 goals.

The Legionaires play one of the two Calgary teams for the Southern Alberta Championship. If they win they will meet the winning team from the North for the Alberta championship.

Coleman Juveniles Make Valiant Bid

February 27th in Taber was a day of battle for the second hockey game between that town and the Coleman Juveniles. Taber started the scoring right off at 2:06 of the first period, and through out the game the action was second to none.

Scoring for the Taber Juveniles were Robert Perini, David Robson, Bruce Willis and Meile Brown, with one goal each.

Coleman scorers were Gordon Brown with 3 goals and Al Steynanek with a singleton.

In the third period at 3:34 Al Steynanek was handed a penalty for interference in the net, giving the Taber Juveniles a penalty shot. Attempting the shot was Taber's Robert Perini, but by the quick action on the part of Coleman net-minder Michael Steinhilber, the attempt was futile.

A 44 game resulted and total goal score for both games—Taber 10, Coleman 6.

Coleman Juniors Lose

The Coleman Juniors faced off with the Inver Creek Flints on Sunday, March 7th. The Flints took the game with a score of 8-4.

Top score for Coleman was Rick Venier with two goals. The sharp shooter to Pincher Creek was G. Boneris.

Officials handed out 7 penalties—Coleman receiving 3 and Pincher Creek 4.

Lions lingo Night Is Changed

Lions lingo night date set for Tuesday, March 16. Coleman Lions Club announced that the next bingo night will be held on Tuesday, March 16 instead of the usual Wednesday.

Post Office Releases Details of Canadian Flag Stamp

Details of a commemorative postage stamp depicting Canada's new flag were announced recently by the Hon. Rene Tremblay, Postmaster General. The new stamp is to be placed on sale June 30th to coincide as closely as possible with Canada's national holiday.

The flag will be printed in red and blue and will be of the horizontal large size. The flag, main theme of the stamp, will be in the official colors of red and white and the background will be blue. The only wording to appear on the stamp will be "Canada", in the top right corner, the words "Postage" along the lower right border and a large five in the lower left corner.

In making the announcement Mr. Tremblay explained that the Department expected a greater demand for the new stamp than for other commemorative stamps.

As a result some 35,000,000 stamps are to be printed as compared to the usual 27,000,000. The stamp was designed and is to be printed by the Canadian Bank Note Company Limited.

Craft Program Serves Veterans

The Red Cross Arts and Crafts program operating in D.V.A. hospitals in Calgary and Edmonton, provided handicraft instruction to some 260 hospitalized veterans during the past year. This program is in operation at the Col. Belcher Hospital in Calgary, the Col. McBurnie Pavilion and Government House in Edmonton.

More than 11,000 items of handicraft, including leatherwork, weaving, tooling, painting, knitting, toys and miscellaneous articles, were produced by the veteran craftsmen in 1964 and found ready sale, it was reported by Miss H. Park (Calgary) Provincial Program chairman.

Sales of veterans' crafts are sponsored periodically by various local organizations with all proceeds from such sales returned to the veterans.

Launched in 1947 at request of government health authorities, the Red Cross craft program serves a dual purpose in that it provides diversional therapy which assists in patient rehabilitation while also supplying an interesting and profitable hobby.

EDITOR'S LAMENT

When a plumber makes a mistake—He charges twice for it. When a lawyer makes a mistake—This is just what he wanted because now he has a chance to try the case all over again. When a doctor makes a mistake—They bury it. When a judge makes a mistake—it becomes a law of the land. When a preacher makes a mistake—Nobody knows the difference.

When the editor makes a mistake—WOW!!!
